4 DAYMAKER Boat Trip

Pack your bathing suit and warm weather clothes for a personalized five day cruise from La Paz, Baja. Travelers will fly into La Paz, Baja California Sur. There is a direct flight from LAX on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday and it is a very easy two-hour flight. Leaves LAX at 10:50 AM. The return flight leaves La Paz at 2:50 PM.

In La Paz you will board Daymaker, a 53' motor yacht that accommodates six individuals in two queen size bed staterooms, and one stateroom with two twin beds. Each stateroom has a TV, DVD player and stereo.

The skipper will take care of all onboard duties, pilot the boat, set up the beach "kingdom" for the day, launch the dinghy, and even cook!

Eddy Delgado will help you create a personalized itinerary to meet your vacation needs. The trip will take you to white sandy deserted beaches, to a seal rookery with hundreds of seals, to great fishing spots where they can catch dorado, relax in warm still water, and a chance see lots of sea life. Fishing and snorkeling gear is available.

You will go to places that you can't go to unless you have a boat in the Sea of Cortez. If you bring kids, they will have the adventure of a lifetime. The boat has buckets, shovels and kid stuff on board and the skipper sets up a tent with beach chairs on the beach daily so the kids can spend the day on the beach. Lunch is brought to you as you sit in waist high water. There is an IPOD loaded with music that also goes to the beach with speakers so you can sit on the beach and listen to music in a deserted cove.

The flybridge on the boat has sofas where you can sit in the evenings or while underway. From the bow you can sit and watch the dolphins and manta rays, and at night the nightlights bring in thousands of fish for entertainment while you dine outside.

A truly incredible trip! You will want to buy a boat and take it to La Paz.

Not available at Easter or Thanksgiving. Airfare not included. No pets or smoking. Summer recommended. Expires December 31, 2010.
